

Gustavo Arvizu

Gustavo Arvizu had a successful career as a lawyer for several years in one of the most prestigious law firms in Mexico having under his belt high-performance cases during his brilliant career as a lawyer. He is currently the CEO of Empreser ELT, directing the company based in Mexico for the whole Latin American territory promoting a global approach to education with prime quality materials and educational solutions.

